

Byron Cheever

SPANISH FORK — Byron Cheever will retire from the Spanish Fork office of First Security Bank Friday.

An open house in his honor is scheduled from 2 to 5 p.m. at the bank.

Cheever, a native of Payson, is presently vice president and commercial loan officer.

He began his 38-year banking career with the Commercial Bank of Payson in 1946. The Commercial Banks of Spanish Fork, Heber City, Nephi, Payson and Delta were consolidated into the Commercial Bank of Utah in 1948. Cheever moved to the bank's Heber City office as assistant manager, a position which he held until shortly after Commercial Bank merged with First Security. In 1956 he became manager of the Heber City office.

Cheever graduated from the Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington in 1954.

He served in a variety of church and civic positions during his years in Heber City.

He moved to Spanish Fork in 1974 to assume duties as vice-president and manager.

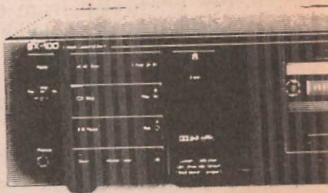

He attended Brigham Young University and served in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

He is married to the former Maureen Christiansen of Santaquin. They have five children.
